SECTION B: Community Interest Statement – Activities & Related Benefit

Please indicate how it is proposed that the company's activities will benefit the community, or a section of the community. Please provide as much detail as possible to enable the CIC Regulator to make an informed decision about whether your proposed company is eligible to become a community interest company. It would be useful if you were to explain how you think your company will be different from a commercial company providing similar services or products for individual or personal gain.

Activities (Tell us here what the company is being set up to do)	How will the activity benefit the community? (The community will benefit by...)
We will provide cutting-edge enterprise-class project management software with an integrated community of people listing their skills available to add to a project	Founders of social enterprises and startups, inventors, and researchers & scientists, usually do not have the financial resources to pay for enterprise-class project management software. Jakaya will be providing it for free and only when the activity of their project reaches a threshold that can be reasonably assumed that they are in a position to pay, we will charge them monthly based on the computing usage of their project (with a percentage added to contribute to our operations). Furthermore, our users can access the integrated community/social network to discuss their project and to find the skills and other resources they need to grow it. One of the unique features of this integration is that people from the community can be easily added to your project and, likewise, feedback and other awards they receive from the project are shown on their community profile.
If the company makes any surplus it will be used for...

NOTES

¹ This form will be placed on the public record. Any information relevant to the application that you do not wish to appear on the public record, should be described in a separate letter addressed to the CIC Regulator and delivered to the Registrar of Companies with the other documents.

² The community interest test is referred to in section 35 of the Companies (Audit, Investigations and Community Enterprise) Act 2004 and is expanded upon in regulations 3, 4 & 5 of the Regulations.

³ E.g. "the residents of Oldtown" or "those suffering from XYZ disease".

⁴ A company is not eligible to be formed as a community interest company if it will be an "excluded company". If you are not sure whether the company which you wish to form falls into any of these categories, you should refer to the definitions of the terms "political party", "political campaigning organisation" and "subsidiary" (and of the related terms "election", "governmental authority", "public authority" and "referendum") in Regulation 2 of the Regulations before completing this form.
